

3 THINGS YOU NEED TO ASK YOURSELF BEFORE YOU PAY A SINGLE PENNY TO ANYONE FOR TWITTER FOLLOWERS

This Special Report Is Brought to You by Get More Twitter Followers (<http://gmtf.info>)

1: Are you looking to buy targeted quality relevant followers related to your interests, niche or business?

- If you aren't, you're wasting your time and money. 14 year old kids tweeting about Lil Wayne or American Idol are going to be of no value to you and your business or cause and won't give a crap about what you tweet.

2: Are you looking to get followers on Twitter just so you can spam and constantly send out tweets saying buy my stuff, hey ya you buy my stuff. You don't know me and I don't know you but hey buy my stuff!

- If you are, forget it, it doesn't work. People go on twitter to have fun, learn, build relationships and share information. They don't join twitter so they can feel like they are being sold to. Think about this for a minute what if every time you talked to or ran into someone they tried to sell you something? Would you think highly of them? Didn't think so, so don't do it. It will backfire on you and ruin your reputation. Give people value. Make them laugh. Teach them something. Make them think. When you have relationships and trust with people then they will want to buy what you are offering.

3: Have you done your homework in regards to your due diligence on any twitter follower service you may be looking to do business with?

- If not you will likely get scammed or spammed. There is more crap than quality out there by far so be careful. At minimum look for these following requirements prior to buying any followers from anyone:
  - a) Make sure they have a 100% money back satisfaction guarantee. If they don't run away and don't look back.
  - b) Make sure they don't have any negative reports or bad reviews by typing "service name scam" or "service name reviews" on google.
  - c) Make sure they have video testimonials from real customers to prove they do good work.
  - d) Make sure they are easy to contact (toll free number, live chat, etc) if they don't they are probably hiding from something and will hide from you when you have a problem.
  - e) Make sure you are only buying relevant targeted real followers related to your interests/business.

There are a lot more things to know and I could write a book about this, but by following these few short simple suggestions you will already be miles ahead in protecting yourself from getting scammed and wasting your time and money.
